PTA Leaders Get Pointers On Parliamentary Procedure

"Parliamentary procedure is democracy in action," said Mrs. L. S. Baca, Tenth District Parent Teacher Information course director, when she addressed the third in a series of study groups last Monday at Channel Heights School.

Mrs. Baca recommended that each association purchase "Robert's Rules of Order" as a reference for parliamentary procedure as these rules protect the rights of the members, the minority, the majority, the absentee, and the organization itself; and if they are followed no injustice can occur in any parent-teacher meeting.

Brownies Take Tour of Boats

Brownie Troop 315, sponsored by Harbor City PTA, spent an interesting afternoon Tuesday, Nov. 24, inspecting the Los Angeles City Fire Boats No. 2 and 3 on Terminal Island.

A guided tour of the boats was arranged for by Battalion Chief Floyd J. Adams. Girls inspecting the engine room and recovery other part of the vessels were Evelyn Tregarthen, Rea Lu Groover, Libby Cook, Betty Lu Groves, Sharon Watson, Linda Allred, Marlene Lillie, Diana Willoughby, Bonnie Cook, Nancy Dean, Susan Jones, Linda Howell, Sharon Stiles, Reba Hale, Loretta Miller, Anita LeFeber, and Peggy Triffon.

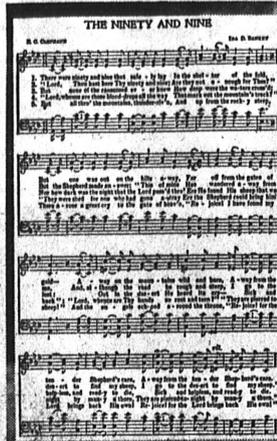

Accompanying the Brownies were Mesdames William Lillie, Wesley Willoughby, Lester Hale, Ray Groover, and Martin H. Jones.

The director explained the procedure on making motions and the proper use of them, saying there is a motion designed to meet virtually every situation that arises in a meeting.

Mrs. Baca also spoke on the nominations and election of officers, saying that officers should be chosen for their abilities and their willingness to serve the interests of the association, taking great care in selecting a good nominating committee.

These study groups are a project of Lomita-San Pedro Council PTA. Final session will be held tomorrow morning, 9:30 o'clock, at Channel Heights School.

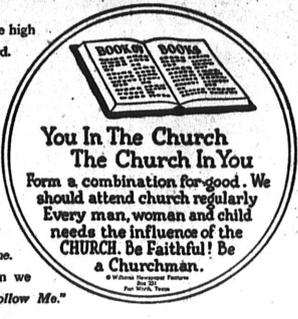

PTAs represented at last Monday's study group were Leland St., Harbor City, Halldale, Bandini St., 259th Pl., 15th St., Dana Junior High, Barton Hill, Seventh St., Channel Heights, and the Banning Homes Mothers.

My Sheep Know My Voice

"THE LORD IS MY SHEPHERD; I SHALL NOT WANT." Of course that is one of the high faiths of all literature. We know that we can depend upon the Good Shepherd. Though the night be dark and the way rough and thorny, He will leave the 'ninety and nine' and go after the lost one. That gives every one of us a sense of worth and a basis for hope.

There is the opposite side of our faith. We must know the Shepherd's voice. Do we listen for the voice of Him who can be trusted or to the voice of the obstructionist? Lukewarm church people have allowed the worldly to criticize churches, advertise vice, ostracize preachers, minimize righteousness and practically idolize the ungodly. Our Shepherd expects us to be faithful ... to go out after those who have wandered, those who have no church home. Then when storms break upon us, when we cannot see the way... even then we shall not go astray; for He said, "My Sheep Know My Voice and They Follow Me."

See You in Church TODAY!

Locals Visit Juvenile Hall

Between 4000 and 5000 juvenile delinquents pass through Juvenile Hall in Los Angeles each year, with the average boy or girl spending four weeks there, Mesdames I. O. Kasten, Torrance High School PTA president, and J. L. Hinds, publicity chairman, learned when they toured the Hall last week.

The turnover is constant, the duo revealed when they returned to Torrance, for the juveniles are under detention while awaiting trial of their cases. Boys up to 16 years of age and girls up to 10 are sent to the Hall and all boy delinquents over 16 are sent to jail while awaiting trial.

Non-delinquent children, those who have been abandoned or taken away from their homes, also are cared for and attend school at Juvenile Hall.

Nurses Plan First Bazaar

With proceeds earmarked for vocational nursing education, the Vocational Nurses Alumni and students of Harbor General Hospital affiliated with Harbor Junior College are planning their first annual bazaar for Tuesday and Wednesday, Dec. 2 and 3.

Event will be held at Harbor General Hospital, 1124 W. Carson St., in classroom F-11 from 2 until 10 p.m. each day. Free refreshments will highlight the festivities, and the public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Edna Bailey is in charge of arrangements.

The blonde bride-to-be graduated from Torrance High School in June, 1952, and is currently dividing her time between home economics studies at El Camino College and work at Gary's Jewelers. Her high school activities included Tartar Ladies, Tri-Hill Y, and the yearbook staff, while at college she is affiliated with Alpha Gamma Sigma, honor society.

Christensen, a graduate of Ventura High School, also attended Narbonne High School. He is employed at Torrance Tee Vee and is affiliated with the Naval Reserve.

Those wishing to attend may call Mrs. J. A. Eisenbrandt, FAirfax 8-5779, she said.

It is expected that a large group of presidents of other women's clubs in Los Angeles District and several District officers will be on hand or the event, Mrs. Vonderahe continued. Featured entertainment will be the "Four Tones" of television fame.

Judges for Yule Lighting Contest Told

Mrs. Hartley E. Carr, president of Torrance Council PTA; Willys Blount, Torrance Councilman; and Donald Roling, principal of the new Evelyn B. Carr Elementary School of North Torrance will judge the North Torrance Fuchsia Society-sponsored Christmas Outdoor Lighting Contest, Mrs. Gerald Cunery, press chairman, said this week.

The contest will be in two categories, outdoor and porch lighting and window lighting as seen from the street. Mrs. Cunery said. First and second prizes will be awarded in both categories.

The competition is open to anyone, and entries may be placed with Mrs. Madell Holmes at MEhlo 4-6781. Deadline for all entries is Dec. 15.

New Sorority Pledges Feted

Tables were decorated with yellow rosebuds, the sorority flower, when Beta Sigma Phi, Lambda Eta Chapter, held a dinner party at the Jumping Jack Restaurant Wednesday of last week to honor new pledges. Candlelight rituals initiating Mrs. Howard Blackburn and Misses Blanche Wright and Ruby Holmes were directed by Mrs. John Evans.

Creative Family Living . . .

firmness and consistency. In those about them. They also like the idea that their parents are interested in their activities at home, and away from home. Knowing their parents feel full responsibility for their roles in life is a must, too, as well as feeling that their ideas are worthwhile and that their parents respect their right to express them.

Each of these factors aids in the natural growth and development of children, however, not as outlined by our "types." Avoid extremes of any attitude. Keep an open mind, be willing to consider a new idea, to admit a mistake. Remember - you're going to make a few mistakes being a parent - but you'll learn. Take time to express yourself through a hobby. Build points of agreement and common interests with your mate. Cultivate a sound philosophy of living. Relax, do the best you can to understand yourself and others. Take time for fun, sharpen your sense of humor - it's one of the best assets in a parent-child relationship.

I find fewer children whose parents have "ruined" their lives than I do adults who "think" their parents ruined their lives, and even they come to the place of "knowing" their parents did the best they could with the knowledge and understanding available to them at that time. Perhaps finding the balance in life, as in our individual attitudes, is the biggest thing we can do to help create a happy experience for our families.

HELP UNCLE SAM

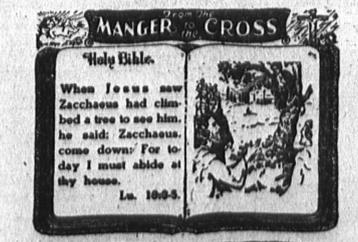

We're going to send gifts. Wrap them securely. Put name of recipient on the box (in case wrapper is lost) use strong cord and heavy paper. Use water proof ink or grease pencil; or print name, address and city of recipient together with your return address on a gummed label. Take it to the Post Office NOW and be sure it will be delivered in good condition and on time.

Going to send Greeting Cards? A million other people are too. Our Postal Employees want to get your Christmas greeting cards to your friends but ask you to help them. You drop 25 or 50 in the mails and thing nothing of it; millions of others are doing the same thing. That weight adds up to tons of paper and our Carriers must deliver it. We can help them by mailing our cards early, spread out that load and make it better for us, and easier for them. Will you do that for Uncle Sam and his Postal Employees?
